THE MISSION:

Lead The Way Fund, Inc. is a 501c3 non-profit organization established to raise funds in support of families of U.S. Army Rangers who have died, have been disabled or who are currently serving in harm's way around the world. The funds raised will provide spouses and children of deceased, disabled or active duty Rangers with assistance for health and wellness programs and other financial aid programs. The Lead The Way Fund, Inc. was created in honor of Sgt. James J. Regan who was killed in Iraq while serving with Charlie Company, 3rd Battalion, 75th Ranger Regiment.

RANGERS:

United States Army Rangers, known as the 75th Ranger Regiment, are the premier light- infantry of the US Army and serve as part of the U.S. Special Operations Command. They are the most elite, highly trained light infantry that the United States military deploys in time of need. Since 1943, the motto of the 75th Ranger Regiment has been "Rangers lead the Way!" They are the tip of the spear in times of military conflict and, historically, they have been the first group of combat men to engage the enemy.

THE NEED:

The majority of U.S. Army Rangers are from small town America, many from backgrounds of modest means. Most active duty Rangers are the sole providers within the family unit, and most do not carry or qualify for adequate life insurance. The average income of an Army Ranger is below $30,000 per year. Rangers generally do not have sufficient savings to provide for their families if they are disabled. While the U.S. Army recognizes the Rangers as an elite group of soldiers and provides as much support as possible in times of tragedy, the need often exceeds the available resources. The military and Veterans' Affairs provide spouses with limited ongoing payments if Ranger's injuries are sustained in combat. Families of the fallen or disabled are left behind with an immediate and ongoing need to meet the financial obligations of everyday life. The Lead the Way Fund was established to help ease these financial burdens and to help these families adjust to the realities of their new life.

Please come join us for fun day of food, golf and friendship as we raise money in support of those who defend and protect us.
